A one-day camp was conducted by the NSS unit of Nirmala College of Pharmacy Muvattupuzha in a locality of Urulanthanni, Ernakulum district. The aim of this program was to provide essential commodities to the tribal population and to create the value of community service among students. The camp was coordinated under the leadership of Administrator Rev. Fr. Jos Mathai Mailadiath, St. Jude catholic church, Urulanthanni Vicar Fr. Paulose Nedunthadathil and NSS in charge Mr. Eby George along with supporting staff Dr. Shyam Kumar B, Mr. Sebin Sebastian, Ms. Lins Mary Joy and Mr. Bejoy Jose. The NSS unit distributed kits containing essential commodities to 27 financially disadvantaged families in the locality. Each kit was valued at Rs 1000/- and included items like food supplies, hygiene products, and basic necessities. During the camp, volunteers emphasized the importance of hygiene, health, and education to the family members. General awareness sessions were conducted to educate them about various government schemes and facilities available to them. The total cost of the kits amounted to Rs 27000/- and was raised through contributions from the Student's fund at Nirmala College of Pharmacy, Muvttupuzha. This event demonstrates the commitment of the college to social responsibility and community welfare. The program ended at 3 p.m. by the vote of thanks of Urulanthanni St. Jude church vicar Fr. Paulose Nedumthadathil.
