Date & Time	02/06/2022,1.00 PM
Venue	St Sebastians school, Anicadu
Collaborating agency	NSS unit
Events	Book Donation
No. of participants benefitted	150

As part of the notebook donation initiative, the NSS unit collected 470 partially used notebooks from the college and handed them over to the Principal, St Sebastian School, Anicadu. This is for the encouragement of complete utilization of resources and to inculcate compassion among students toward society. 16 First Pharm D students voluntarily coordinated the activity, to promote education and learning among underprivileged students and to alleviate the financial burden on families who cannot afford the cost. A total of 150 students received the notebook through this initiative. The principal of St Sebastian School expressed gratitude to all students, organizers, and the management of Nirmala College of Pharmacy who contributed to the success of the notebook donation initiative. And also acknowledged the service mind of students for providing the essential resources and wished overall success to those who coordinated the activity. NSS coordinator, Dr. Prasanth Francis highlighted the importance of continued efforts to promote equal access to education for all students.
